No hacked client website or company is affiliated with Mojang, like most mods. On most servers, the use of hacked clients is a punishable offense and can cause players to be banned by both administrators and Anti-Cheat from a particular server, depending on the server's policies and rules. Any newflags should keep this in mind and should be open to the framework of thinking that all players use hacked customer on a daily basis. In fact, players on 2b even encoded their own hacked customers. Most hacks on hacked clients are acceptable for use on the server however certain hacks, such as speed and flight, have restrictions on their use or otherwise do not work in order for the gameplay to be fair. This is provided by plug-ins on the server 2b.
